Testimonials

Afonso is a highly inquisitive and diligent student, who frequently chased knowledge on the field of sound and networked with students from other courses to collaborate with. He was one of the few students I saw who took a very active approach in advancing his personal practice outside of academic units; often staying late up in the studios to work on extracurricular projects, new music or his sound design showreel.

James Wright, Technical Tutor, University for the Creative Arts

Afonso was very popular with the customers, he was nice and chatty, a very positive young man. Afonso was never late, in fact he was always early. He has a cheerful and positive attitude and the customers would always ask after him. On occasion they would request to have him on shift for their booking!
