

LOOKING FOR CREATIVE FREELANCE TALENT?

Skip the search... We've got you!

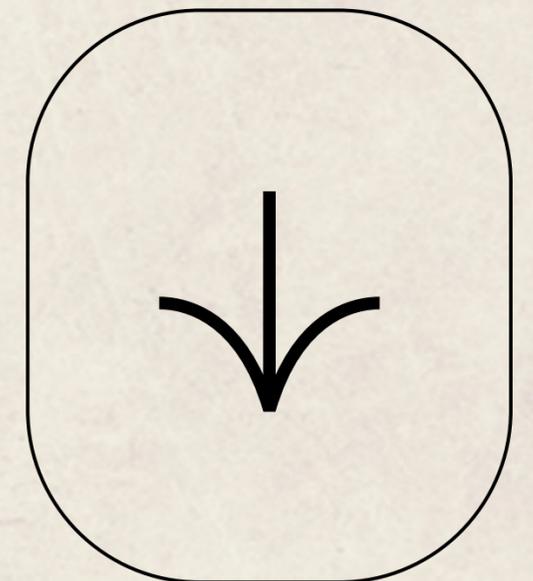

ABOUT US

Over the past 18 years, we've built a powerhouse network of media production pros—editors, motion graphics designers, animators, VFX artists, camera operators, producers, directors, shooting PD's, PM's, AP's, runners and so much more. We don't just look for skill; we find creatives with the attitude, work ethic, and vision to make your project shine.

...whilst our office is based in the creative hub of Hackney Wick, London, we crew up across the UK!

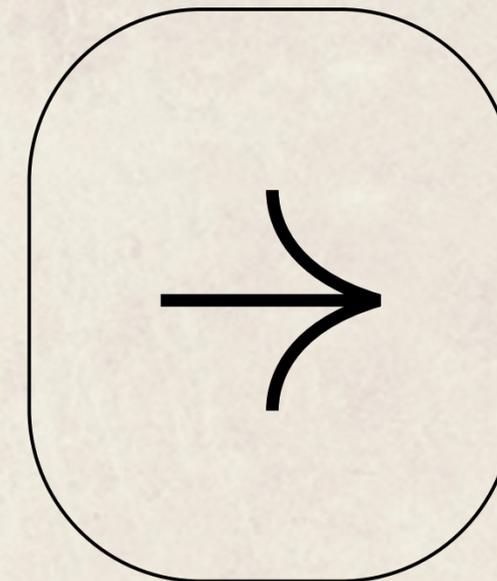

WHATEVER YOU NEED, WE DELIVER

From broadcast to branded content, social to corporate – no matter what skillset you're looking for, no matter how unusual, whether that's an underwater filmmaker, a car videographer who makes clunkers look cool, or a full production crew for a record-breaking shoot—we'll find the perfect fit.

Many of our clients see us as an extension of their team. If you need talent for a day, a 12-week project, or a last-minute gig, we've got you.

IR35? 🙈 WE'VE GOT IT COVERED

Tax laws can be complex, but we make it easy. As IR35 regulations changed in April 2021, end hirers (clients) now determine whether a freelancer is working as an employee (inside IR35) or truly self-employed (outside IR35).

→

We stay ahead of the curve, offering multiple payment solutions (PAYE, off-payroll, and umbrella) to ensure full compliance—so you don't have to worry. Whether you need guidance on a project basis or full IR35 support, we're here to help.
